1. PURPOSE

This regulation establishes standards and practices to be used when considering and selecting candidates for vacant positions from agency-created applicant pools. This regulation provides a foundation for establishing sound personnel practices that result in a meritorious, job-related selection process.

2. CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION RULE REFERENCE

Rule 1-6 Merit, Efficiency, and Fitness

All appointments and promotions to positions in the classified service, all measures for the control and regulation of employment in classified positions, and all separations from classified positions shall be based on merit, efficiency, and fitness, as provided in the civil service rules and regulations.

Rule 1-7 Equal Employment Opportunity

The department of civil service and each appointing authority shall provide equal employment opportunity in the state classified service for all persons in accordance with the civil service rules and regulations.

Rule 1-8 Prohibited Discrimination

1-8.1 Prohibited Discrimination

The department of civil service or an appointing authority shall not do any of the following:

- (a) Fail or refuse to hire, recruit, or promote; demote; discharge; or otherwise discriminate against a person with respect to employment, compensation, or a term, condition, or privilege of employment, because of religion, race, color, national origin, age, sex, height, weight, marital status, partisan considerations, or a disability or genetic information that is unrelated to the person's ability to perform the duties of a particular job or position.*
- (b) Limit, segregate, or classify an employee or applicant for employment in a way that deprives or tends to deprive the employee or applicant of an employment opportunity or otherwise adversely affects the status of an employee or applicant because of religion, race, color, national origin, age, sex, height, weight, marital status, partisan considerations, or a disability or genetic information that is unrelated to the person's ability to perform the duties of a particular job or position.*

Rule 3-1 Examinations3-1.1 Authority

The department of civil service shall prepare or approve examinations for all classified positions. Examinations are referred to as appraisal methods in these rules.

3-1.2 Content and Method

Appraisal methods must assess relevant, job-related knowledge, skills, abilities, and other qualifications necessary for successful job performance. The department of civil service may use another organization's appraisal results.

3-1.3 Application

The department of civil service shall establish procedures for persons seeking positions in the classified service.

Rule 3-2 Applicant Pools and Recall Lists3-2.1 Applicant Pool

The department of civil service may establish and maintain applicant pools. The department of civil service may divide applicant pools by geographic area, organizational unit, occupational specialty, type of appointment, or other criteria. The state personnel director shall issue regulations for the duration and use of applicant pools. A person's eligibility to remain in an applicant pool or to be referred for a position is determined under the civil service rules and regulations in effect at the time the department of civil service refers names of qualified applicants to an appointing authority.

3-2.3 Recall Lists

An employee is eligible to be placed on a recall list only if the employee (1) gained status from an indefinite appointment and (2) is laid off, demoted, or otherwise displaced for reasons of administrative efficiency. Recall lists are not created or maintained for classifications that are protected from the application of employment preference in rule 2-5 [Employment Preference] or applicable regulations.

Rule 3-3 Appointments and Job Changes3-3.1 Process

All appointments, promotions, and job changes in the classified service must be made in accordance with the civil service rules and regulations. Any person appointed or promoted must be certified as qualified in accordance with and subject to the civil service rules and regulations. The state personnel director shall administer the certification of all appointments and promotions.

3. DEFINITIONS

A. Civil Service Commission Rule Definitions

1. Applicant means a person who requests to participate in an appraisal process.*
2. Applicant pool means a group of applicants whom the department of civil service has determined to be qualified.*
3. Candidate means a qualified person who requested to be considered for appointment to a specific position in the classified service and who was considered by the appointing authority.*
4. Candidate pool means qualified persons considered for a position.*

B. Additional Definition as used in this Regulation

1. Agency created applicant pool means a group of applicants who have been recruited by an agency using appropriate methods to ensure equal employment opportunity.

4. STANDARDS

A. Recall.

1. The appointing authority must obtain a recall list report (ZP106) from the Human Resources Management Network (HRMN).
2. All recall names must be cleared in accordance with regulation 3.07 [Appointments and Job Changes].

B. Contractual Provisions.

The appointing authority must comply with any provision of a collective bargaining agreement pertaining to posting, transfer lists, etc., applicable to the selection process for the position.

BC. Recruitment.

1. An appointing authority may use any appropriate method to recruit and contact applicants for a position vacancy that ensures equal employment opportunity for a qualified applicant pool.

- a. The civil service vacancy posting website is the primary method for recruiting for vacancies when filling a position from an agency-created applicant pool. ~~Exceptions to its use are listed in the State of Michigan Applicant Recruitment Strategies.~~
 - b. The Department of Civil Service shall develop and maintain an overall recruitment strategy and plan to assist agencies in obtaining ~~candidates~~ applicants. In addition to the ~~primary source of applicants identified by the State of Michigan Applicant Recruitment Strategies~~ vacancy posting website, other recruitment activities may be used, ~~for examples~~ such as, partnerships with schools, community service agencies, trade and vocational organizations, and community organizations (e.g., Urban League, NAACP, minority and women's professional or fraternal associations, etc.); ~~use of~~ premium job boards, and recruitment firms.
2. Appointing authorities shall ensure equal employment opportunity consistent with civil service rules and regulations.
 3. In the recruitment process, consistent job-related information must be provided. Information may include, for example, the following:
 - a. Proper civil service position title, classification level, and working title, if different.
 - b. A brief description of the job duties, responsibilities and working conditions.
 - c. Qualifications or special requirements needed for the position.
 - d. Salary.
 - e. Employee status code.
 - f. Job location.
 4. A minimum of 7 calendar days from the date of posting or contact is recommended for applicants to respond.

CD. Applicant Screening.

1. An agency ~~may conduct a preliminary screening of applicants to~~ should reduce the size of the applicant pool to an acceptable number of candidates. The size of the pool may be reduced on a random basis or by applying screening criteria.
- ~~2. The screening may be random or based on screening criteria.~~
- ~~3-2~~ The screening criteria must be job-related and ensure equal employment opportunity.

- ~~4.3~~ An applicant who has been disqualified from the selection process for any reason specified in civil service commission rules cannot be considered as a viable candidate in any applicant pool. (e.g. sanctioned applicants).

DE. Candidate Credential Reviews.

1. The Department of Civil Service shall conduct credential reviews in the following circumstances:

- a. ~~For classifications not preauthorized for credential review by the appointing authority. To evaluate any experience gained outside the classified service (i.e., any experience not recorded on official employee history records).~~
- b. To evaluate degree majors not specifically listed on the classification specification.
- c. To evaluate recognized alternatives identified on the classification specification.
- ~~bd.~~ To ~~approve other~~ evaluate potential equivalent combinations of education ~~and or~~ experience.
- e. To evaluate experience gained while working out of class.
- ~~ef.~~ When the appointing authority requests assistance for conducting credential reviews for classifications for which they have preauthorized authority.
- ~~d-g.~~ When the appointing authority does not have approval by the Department of Civil Service to conduct preauthorized credential reviews.

2. When requesting that the Department of Civil Service conduct credential reviews under Standard E. 1., the agency must:

- a. Provide credential information (résumés, transcripts, classified employment histories, etc.) and a completed Request for Credential Review form (CS-153) to the Department of Civil Service for applicants who have been pre-screened by the agency and are considered potential candidates. These are individuals the agency intends to include in the candidate pool for further consideration if the Department of Civil Service determines they meet the minimum qualification requirements. Denial letters will be sent to applicants whose credentials do not satisfy the requirements. Department of Civil Service approval on the CS-153 signifies only that an individual candidate meets the minimum qualification requirements for the classification.

b. If the agency wants the Department of Civil Service to conduct an initial screening of a large applicant pool, the agency must indicate the number of qualified applicants desired and whether the pool is to be reduced on a random basis or based on screening criteria provided by the agency. Denial letters will not be sent to applicants whose credentials do not satisfy the requirements.

2.3. The Department of Civil Service authorizes appointing authorities and designated agency staff to conduct credential reviews when recruiting for specific jobs in predetermined classifications (See State of Michigan Recruitment Strategies) provided they have received Department of Civil Service credential review training and certification, except in the circumstances noted in Standard E.1.

- a. The appointing authority may nominate one or more persons to act as agency credential reviewers.

 - g. Performance tests.
 - h. Physical agility tests.
 - i. Reference checks.
 - j. Supplemental written or electronic tests.
2. Evaluation methods and criteria must be job-related. To the extent practical, an agency shall utilize the same, or substantially similar, selection methods and criteria, and elicit the same, or substantially similar, pertinent, job-related information for all candidates. Civil Service staff shall provide assistance in the development or use of any additional evaluation methods, if requested.
 3. All non-selected candidates who are contacted for any evaluation by an appointing authority must be notified, at the conclusion of the selection process, that they are not selected or, that a particular vacancy will not be filled.

FG. Selection of Noncareer Employees.

The selection of noncareer employees does not require a full evaluation process. Documentation for the selection of noncareer employees should include a current, approved position description, documentation that recall records were checked, and the evaluation of the selected candidate compared to the rating criteria used.

GH. Certification of Appointment.

1. A requisition using PA42.1 in the HRMN must be created.
2. The appointment of the selected candidate is certified by completing the Requisition Applicant Form (XP43.1) in the HRMN. The "Date" field on this form will be used to enter the date of the appointment. The "Applied" field on this form will be used to enter the date of the credential review for all sources except RECALL, and UAW TXFR. For these sources, enter the date of the Recall or UAW Transfer Report in this field. The "Hire Source" field must reflect the source-qualified candidate pool from which the candidate was selected (e.g., Appointing Authority Credential Review, Civil Service Credential Review, etc.).

H. Documentation.

1. An appointing authority shall maintain accurate documentation for all steps of the selection process for at least 3 years from the completion of the selection process. Documentation to be retained must include, if used:
 - a. A current, approved position description, including any approved special requirements (e.g., current selective position requirements).
 - b. Methods used to notify applicants of a vacancy, a selection, or a decision not to fill a vacancy.
 - c. Verification that recall obligations have been met.
 - d. Verification that the selected candidate is not a sanctioned applicant.
 - d-e. Applications or resumes of candidates evaluated.
